Iyo is a city of *colors. It *is located in the center of Ehime, and it's famous for a beautiful *sunset. When you stand at *Futami Seaside Park in the *twilight, the sky, the sea, the beach, yourself and everything is filled with red and orange colors. The sunset from the park *was chosen as one of Japan's 100 most beautiful sunsets.

In spring you can enjoy the color of *canola flowers. It is the *official city flower of Iyo. There is a *field of canola flower at *Saredani. The field is filled with *yellow and the sweet *scent of canola flowers.

You can also enjoy the beautiful colors of foods there. *Bright brown of *dried bonito and beautiful orange of *tangerine and *loquat.

There is a story of colors, too. About 800 years ago, there was a big *war between *the Genji family and the Heishi family. After the war, five ladies came to a beach in Iyo by boat to run away from the war. They were the *princesses of Heishi. When those sisters heard that Heishi *lost the war, they went *into the sea and *died. Later people found five *stones of beautiful colors on the beach. Now the name of the beach is *Goshiki-hama, five-color-beach.
