2 次の英文を読んで、(1)～(4)の各問いに答えなさい。*がついている語句については、(注)を参考にしなさい。

A soccer game I watched on TV yesterday was very exciting. It was held in *Italy. *Nagatomo Yuto was playing in the game. He is from Saijo City, Ehime. He is on the team called *Inter Milan. It is in the *league called *Serie A, one of the *top *professional soccer leagues in the world.

Nagatomo started playing soccer when he was six years old. He went to Kita Junior High School in Saijo, and practiced soccer very hard. He *entered Higashi-Fukuoka High School. The school is famous for its high level of soccer. He practiced very hard and did a good job for his team in games but he wasn't so famous in his high school days.

In 2005, Nagatomo entered *Meiji University, but he *suffered from backaches. So he couldn't practice and play soccer. He almost lost *motivation to play soccer, but his family and friends *encouraged him to keep playing soccer. He *trained his muscles hard, and so he came to *play an important role in games.

Nagatomo became a professional player on *FC Tokyo when he was in university. In 2008, he was *chosen as a member of *Japan's national team. In 2010, he played in the *FIFA World Cup. He did a great job for Japan's national team. So he received the *Ehime Culture and Sport Prize. After that he went to Italy to play soccer in the Serie A.

Nagatomo is now an important player on Inter Milan. He is loved by many fans in Italy, Japan and other countries. Soccer is a sport everybody knows and loves. Soccer has no *borders all around the world. Nagatomo Yuto has *proved it.
